Last time when I was playing one of your games I heard one of my pupils say to another: This is the best teacher in our school. Naima Chraa, Morocco This teacher is now excited about teaching English. Brilliant!! That is amazing how many games you can use in just one lesson. I can’t believe I am actually excited about starting with the new unit. To be honest I am extremely happy with these ideas. There is evident lineage between the concepts of teaching English as a foreign language (TEFL) and tourism, represented through evocative marketing material, the commoditisation of the TEFL product, teacher motivations and experiences. Yet, to date there has been no recognition of these links within industry or academia. This book introduces the concept of 'TEFL tourism', outlining the scale of the sector and the rapid commercialization of TEFL teaching across the world, locating it as an emerging form of niche tourism. The text outlines the organisation types and geographical locations, emphasizing the commodification of English language teaching. It also outlines the types of TEFL tourists, the complexities of international education, links with various tourism forms and sustainability considerations of the industry.
